

KEVICC Ten Tors Bid

The Ten Tors Challenge, now in its 55th year, remains as challenging as it has ever been. Teams of 6 young people hike set courses of 35,45 or 55 miles unaided, camping, cooking and navigating independently.

This year was very successful for KEVICC. Three teams took part, with students aged 14-18. Training began in November, with day walks, overnight camps, and sessions in school on First aid, navigation and camping skills. All three teams completed as full teams without any fall-outs (around 25%) .
