Information Notes for individual applicants for Foundation Governor Awards

Please read the application form carefully and answer all the questions asked. You are the applicant but you may ask for help to fill in the form. Remember to talk to your referee about your application and give them time to write a reference.

The Foundation Governors can grant funds to all current students and persons under the age of 25 who have attended King Edward VI Community College for at least two years. These grants are to promote education, including social, vocational and physical training.

Criteria for awards

Need – low parental income or social need
Educational need
Cannot be funded by DCC or elsewhere
Special or social needs
Never more than 50% of cost

Desirable

Attempt to find other funding
Contribution to college or community
Demonstration of aptitude and ability

Do not fund

Daily travel expenses
Exam fees
Computers or cameras- a loan stock has been funded
Students in receipt of previous generous grants
Trips, funding already provided for those with low parental income
Music lessons, there is a bursary scheme in place
Materials that would be covered by a Sixth Form bursary.
Retrospective applications

Who gets a grant and for what?

Grants typically average between £150-£400. Examples of recent grants are:

- Sports equipment and funding to allow taking part in national and international competitions.
- Musical instruments (the policy on this is being reviewed).
- Extra curricular courses.
- Acquiring a skill which will have benefits for others (e.g. Life saving, coaching).
- Volunteer placements abroad.
- Help with costly design projects with exceptional merit.
- Social education opportunities for young carers and students with physical or social disabilities.
- Help with apprentice costs.

What the Foundation is looking for in an application

- It meets the criteria of the Foundation's policies.
- It is the result of a real need not something invented for funding,
- The grant will allow the student to progress.
- An award will help a student to overcome difficulties.
- It will give an educational opportunity.
- Evidence of talent and commitment: e.g. at least grade 5 in music
- An indication of how matched funding will be raised.
- The application is value for money.
- A detailed confidential reference from the Head of Year, or Department, must be given.
- The outcomes of the project are anticipated and feedback will be forthcoming.
- All the information requested on the form is supplied.

The application form

- You should fill the form in yourself but may ask for help from home or tutors.
- Answer each question clearly and briefly, typed notes may be attached.
- Apply before a course or event. Late applications may not be considered.
- Show why you are in need of financial support.
- Justify the costs; there could be alternatives to expensive equipment. Costs are checked.
- Remember to list all previous grants, including trips, bursaries and awards.
- Tell us if an award could help overcome a setback or difficult circumstances.
- Give evidence of your commitment and achievements.
- List your contributions to the college or community and how this will continue.
- Ask for a statement of support from the appropriate person (Head of Year or Head of Department only). Do this well in advance and consult your referee on your application. The reference will be confidential and will influence the decision.
- Awards will not be made without a reference.
- The conditions for acceptance will be included in the letter awarding a grant. Parents of current students will be asked to countersign this letter.

Statement Guidelines

An application cannot be accepted without a reference from the Head of Year, Department or Faculty. All information will be treated in confidence. Please discuss the application with the student. We leave it to you whether to show the student the reference. Please attach your reference to this form and send to Marie Trant, Secretary to the Foundation, who has copies of our policies and criteria.

The trustees are keen to reach students who are too modest, or have special needs, to ask for a grant and to create opportunities. Your background knowledge of home circumstances and the student's attitude is invaluable. Students who have been generously funded are less likely to receive further awards, unless there is a real need for continued support.

Most awards go only to students with low parental income. The awards subcommittee has more freedom but has a duty to consider both financial and social need. It would be helpful if you could indicate this in your reference and include whether:

- The student has discussed the application with you
- The student is aware of the conditions for awards
- The award will meet a genuine need, not merely satisfy a want
- The request is already funded by a Sixth Form bursary
- It is value for money? Students are inclined to ask for top of the range
- An award will contribute to the student's educational development. This can be academic, physical, creative or social
- It will help combat difficulties the student has or is experiencing
- The student has contributed to the college and community, according to capabilities, if possible the Foundation expects students to give feedback
- The request is realistic. Most grants are of £150-£350
- The student shows exceptional talent which a grant would support

Thank you, the Trustees are aware this will be an extra call on your time but we are bound to select the most deserving for awards.
